Ascendant – Pisces

This sign appearing to 'come up' over her Eastern Horizon at the moment of birth is what colours and modifies her Aquarian individuality, imparting the characteristics of Pisces to her nature, appearance and physical structure. Whereas the average Aquarian is expected to display a somewhat unemotional, aloof, friendly but detached interest in ALL of humanity, with unswerving loyalty, Tanya cannot be said to apply her energies without the influence of emotional considerations. The compassionate desire to help others is therefore very strong in her, and if the Aquarian intellect predominates over the less decisive Picean temperament, with academic grades to qualify, then the above combination of the Three Major Facets of the nature could direct her interests into some facet of the medical field. Healing, counselling, psychological analysis and research, with a view always to advancing some Aquarian ideal level of improving the quality of life on earth for all its inhabitants.

Neptune is her Ruling Planet and framed against the forever-learning Sign of Sagittarius it enhances her desire for further knowledge at an advanced level. What's more, it is located in the 10th house segment to emphasise the connection with her professional interests, although these will be varied so that there could be more than one career in this lifetime – possibly conducted in parallel. Pisces is a 'dual' sign, as in the Sagittarian influence encompassing Neptune. Venus is also in Pisces, in close alignment with Mars, and since Venus is referred to as being exalted in Pisces, Tanya has the opportunity of exacting from it the highest form of emotional expression. She wants to care for EVERYONE – medically, spiritually, psychologically, financially – ANY WAY they want!! Fortunately for her thinking (Mercury) is clothed in a very practical, businesslike Capricorn mode of earthly practicality which will hopefully prevent her from allowing the sycophants to prey on her endless generosity.

Sun – Aquarius

This places her in the Aquarian Team thereby forming part of the natural balance of mankind on earth. Here the rules require fixed attention to the cultivation of intellectual matters of the mind through ideas, inventive innovation, plans for reform, scientific analysis, study of the ecology, and all with the minimum of interference from emotional disturbance. The stubborn self-will displayed during youth must be carefully directed towards the development of her own self-discipline. She must be kept constantly busy, busy, busy with intellectually stimulating conversation, puzzles, games, music, and art. Piano and rhythm must form the basis of her Creative Expression and this could continue as that parallel career to accompany the more practical vocational interest. We all need to develop and maintain interests of Productive AND Creative types in order to ensure a well balanced personality.

Although Tanya will be of the most affectionate, loving nature, with an equally tenacious desire to BE LOVED, she also has the ability for complete independence when it suits her, and she can retreat happily into her own imaginative world to study, practice, draw, paint, or just to dream!! The latter must be discouraged as a sole occupation, however, for out of any purely idle activity can emerge the Negative emotions of Piscean fear of exposure of competition, fear of failure, particularly as the Sun is positioned in her map in the 12th house segment of all Piscean activities, both positive and negative. The most negative emotion here is emotional self-destruction, often through narcotics or alcohol, or fear itself. For this reason it is essential that she be encouraged to keep her very active mind and emotions stimulated in positive activities. She may be very shy whilst young, even though she could become a tremendous dramatic actress one day, so she needs to develop those talents (like dancing and music) which will boost her own self-esteem and help her to establish her Ego in a field where she can be SURE of applause. This, then will encourage her to forge forward confidently, for she has the determination to achieve perfection. The Planetary Ruler of Uranus which we find ALSO clothed in Sagittarian influence, ALSO powerfully positioned in the Career sector, and in very close alignment with the academically-oriented Jupiter which emphasizes still further her desire for knowledge within a broad spectrum of experience, plus travel and languages.

Moon – Scorpio

Just as the Aquarian Individuality relates directly to her Dad's Ego-projection at the professional level (note Brian's Aquarian Mid Heaven), so she has inherited these Scorpio moods, mannerisms, emotional expression and Psychological Needs from Dad who ALSO has his Moon in Scorpio. Tanya's Moon is located in the 9th house segment of all Sagittarian activities – study, religious enquiry, philosophy, travel – in fact she could emigrate in the course of her professional interests, or as a result of marriage. Obviously the Sagittarian content in her nature relates to both parents, Dad belonging to the basic Sagittarian team, and Mum having a Sagittarian temperament (See Barbara's Ascendant). Where the Pisces comes from you may decide as she grows up, but although a Caesarean birth was 'arranged' by the medical attendants, the circumstances of her birth were obviously pre-determined, or known, long before she embarked on this existence with all her Piscean accoutrements to propel her in a scientific direction.

Scorpio is even more secretive and deeply emotional than Pisces, and since the Moon represents the Outer expression of the Personality, or the face we present outwardly to family and friends, showing certain reactions according to this mode, we can expect to find an extremely intense little girl with a rather unnerving way of looking at people. There is a kind of hypnotic gaze that can focus on its prey, for instance, from beneath rather well defined eyebrows which can be equally severe!! It is, however, an extremely feminine element to add to a female nature, typical of the dramatic actress – or seductress. The rhythmic movement, whether walking or dancing, will be almost hypnotic in itself!! When Tanya walks into a room with her Aquarian head held high, wearing the Piscean badge of delicate charm, with the commanding theatrical presentation of Scorpio Personality – Heads of State will turn!!

Being so stubborn she is fortunate to have chosen her EQUALLY fixed parents so well – for select them (with careful assistance, we believe) she DID. I notice, by the way, that Allan also shares the Piscean influence which manifests in his Moon Sign – his outer personality expression, so you can be sure they will always have a very close affinity to one another, although together they will no doubt contrive to secretly outwit their elders, and give away very few secrets.

The Fourth dimension of the character is drawn from the Sign governing the Mid Heaven, as shown on topmost point of the Chart, and for Tanya this is again Scorpio, signifying that the same emotional intensity and stubborn resolve can be directed into her professional interests, and indeed all her endeavours, with a determination to do nothing by HALVES. If she were to develop a flair for journalism, she would favour the unravelling of mysteries, revealing the unknown and uncovering the criminal element in Society. If studying Law, then it would be as a criminologist with an eloquent, dramatic and forceful verbal delivery as a Barrister.. Or will it be Barristeress by the time you are moving into the year 2000 and the Aquarian Great Year of our Civilisation. You will obviously move very easily into that Era, Tanya, well able to identify with the computer age of modern science and nuclear technology with the attendant benefits of space travel and oceanic research – EITHER of which will fascinate you.

Although appearing shy and reserved, the talents are to be directed vehemently towards idealistic objectives, and the 'Bundle' shaping of the chart, as transposed from the cosmic planetary pattern existing at birth, suggests there will be little deviation from the idealistic form of thinking. All the energies and interests will have the same intensive basis revolving around societal reforms and humanitarian issues. This is not the Chart of an introvert with the bulk of the planets appearing above the horizon, so I suspect the strong Sagittarian influence within the Ego expression will find enjoyment and stimulation in spirited debate and dynamic rhetoric. Pisces likes to achieve perfection in the use of words, so the vocabulary should be consciously built up throughout life to assist in the art of self-expression, and rather than baby talk during kindergarten stage, there could be incorporated into the learning some knowledge of a foreign language!! Honestly!! This intellect is forever enquiring into something new, and can cope with all that is available. She sounds like a creation of exquisite beauty with those large, widely set Aquarian eyes focused on a new way of life for all.
